STAT

I wish to extend my appreciation and that of the Daily Reporting Division for your valuable contribution during your second summer assignment with FBIS. Your mature, responsible attitude and your enthusiastic flexibility in combining the duties of proofreader, word processor, collator, editor-trainee, and pre-publication reviewer of the two Far East branch volumes has far exceeded the performance expected of a "Summer Only."

I hope that this summer has been interesting and pleasant for you. Your colleagues have genuinely enjoyed working with you and hope that you will return.

We wish you continued success in your studies and hope that the coming year will be an exciting one for you.

Sincerely,

STAT
